

2.3.1: Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning experiences and teachers use ICT- Enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning process

The lecture method has no equal substitute, though the teachers try to make interactive use. Faculty members conduct innovative and entertaining sessions in order to enhance learning experiences; Teachers also use different teaching-learning methods:

Computer-assisted learning

Practical learning

Student Assignment

Group Discussion

Quiz program

Student seminars

Industrial visits

Use of teaching samples, slides and charts.

Field visits

Each student is encouraged to participate in the interaction and discuss difficulties.

Students are enabled to gain in-depth content knowledge

Students participated in practical learning, All the students are preparing assignment which has given by concern subject faculty members and student understand the subject content thoroughly and Group discussion conducted on various topics related to subject, this activities help them analyze the subject and issues and more understanding purpose faculty members conduct the quize after completing the units. Here students understand the question patter and get the clarity on each topics and it help the students to participate in competition and the participating in economics students as buyers and sellers, and conducting seminars by students. The History section takes students to historical sites and informs them of the importance of the historical site.

The History section takes students to historical sites and informs them of the importance of the historical site. The role of parliament is to inform students of state politics through role-playing. The Sociology Department conducts seminars for the aged, orphans and students on social issues students are invited to visit industries to provide practical knowledge.

Kannada department The Kannada department is giving personal introduction to the students of literature and giving specials on Kannada subject and introducing their achievements and experience how it helps us to express our feelings in our mother tongue. For this the students were informed experientially through short plays and visual media.

Students will be informed about job opportunities, aptitude tests and higher education. Various activities are organized as seminars, debate competition, group discussions, quiz etc. to enhance the personality of the students.

- True to the spirit of modernity, this institute has introduced modern facilities for teaching and learning and Effective transmission of knowledge with its well-established computer lab, LCD projectors, Scanners, printers. Moreover, the small-scale Wi-Fi facility on campus makes net-surfing convenient, A well-arranged library.
- Students and teachers have easy access to the Internet Access the resource and update their knowledge. In college, keeping pace with advanced technology, all teachers are motivated to perform ICT tools effectively. They use projectors and sound systems
- Teaching - Power Point presentations, videos and online lectures to help with the learning process. Soft copies notes are provided to students through Google classes and Zoom classes. Teachers are also well versed with the use of documentaries, and templates.
- Most teachers have their own video classes and youtube class of Google class Rooms. Teachers are well versed in taking online classes. Power Point presentations are used by all teachers in the classroom